FAILURE LOOMS LARGE OVER SIMLA

LEAGUE REFUSES TO SUBMIT PANEL: VICEROY FIRM

Jinnah's Move Shifts Burden Of Success Or Failure On Wavell

SIMLA, July 9. (U. P. A.): Fears heightened today that the Simla Conference will fail as the Muslim League Working Committee adjourned until further notice after sending the Viceroy a letter in which it is understood to have refused to submit a list of names for the new Executive Council unless it is assured that the Viceroy would respect their contention that only the League should select the Muslim members.

Wavell Stands Firm

The League Letter was a reply to a communication from the Viceroy which followed the Jinnah-Wavell conference on Sunday. The Viceroy is reliably reported to be standing firm on the position outlined in his June broadcast, that any arrangement must embody an agreement between the main parties or the present Executive will continue, and is refusing to admit the Muslim League's contention.

After the latest session, Mr. Jinnah told Stewart Hensley of the United Press of America that "The events of Sunday and today have absolutely not altered the League's position as set forth in my interview with you."

EDGE OF A PRECIPICE

SIMLA, July 9. (A. P. I.): The Muslim League Working Committee's decision not to submit its panel of names has brought the Simla Conference to the edge of a precipice. The political respondent of the "Associated Press" of India.

This decision was not unexpected in view of Lord Wavell's statement that he could give no assurance to any party of his accepting all the names suggested by any one single party. Nevertheless, hopes were entertained in some quarters till midday to-day that the League would submit its list of names.

The League's decision now throws the entire responsibility for the success or failure of the Conference on Lord Wavell. Lord Wavell can either go ahead with his plan or announce his decision not to proceed with it. What Lord Wavell will do is a closely guarded secret.

"TILL THE PICTURE IS COMPLETE"

Mr. Jinnah's speech this evening in which he says that "We are mere advisers of the Viceroy" and that the League could not make up its mind "till the picture is complete" is interpreted in some quarters to mean that yet there may be some way out and that the League's decision not to submit a panel of names need not be regarded as a final decision not to co-operate in the further stages of the Conference. On the contrary, Mr. Jinnah's speech indicates that he is waiting for the "complete picture" before the League can have its final word. This view is strengthened by the fact that Mr. Jinnah has asked the members of his Working Committee to be in Simla to be ready available for consultations.

Meanwhile, political observers regard that the next stage in the Simla deliberations will be that the Viceroy may send for the Congress President Maulana Abul Kalam Azad and, perhaps (Continued on Page 5 Col. 1.)

Truman Sails For Europe

TRUMAN TO VISIT BRITAIN

Breaking Up

Will Meeting On July 14 Be Last In Simla?

(From Our Correspondent)

SIMLA, July 9. The Wavell Conference is breaking up, as it were, and the meeting fixed for July 14 might be the last of its sitting unless leaders radically change their present attitude. Just as the question of one seat for the Sikhs had wrecked the communal settlement in London in 1931 so also a seat for the nationalist Muslims is likely to wreck the Wavell Conference this week.

In the final analysis who represents Indian Muslims is the real bone of contention. League claims that it alone represents the entire body of Indian Muslims. Congress refuses to claim and points to prominent Muslims who are on its rolls.

Persons in touch with the Viceroy's House regret that the party has resuscitated Lord Wavell's appeal to set aside for the time being party affiliations and look at the problem from an All-India angle. Firstly, they claim that the Congress list has created complications. Out of 15 names there are seven Congressists, including two Muslims and two Harijans, one—Rajkumari Amrit Kaur intensely pro-Congress, and four—Mukerji, Deshmukh, Tansing and Dalal anti-Pakistanis. The inclusion of Maulana Azad might prove an insurmountable hurdle for settlement.

In the League side, Mr. Jinnah is believed to have remained unyielding in his interview with Lord Wavell last evening. According to reports he insisted that all seats on the Muslim moiety must be allotted to the League alone and that he would not submit the panel of names but the exact number of names required to fill in the seats on the Muslim moiety, and such persons must be 'ipso facto' nominated by Lord Wavell. Both these demands it is believed, were unacceptable to Lord Wavell. A letter from the Viceroy expressing his inability to meet Mr. Jinnah's demands it is believed, was received this morning by the Jinnah. The letter, according to these reports, 'inter alia', categorically declared that the Viceroy will not surrender his right to make the selection from the panel of names to be submitted to him nor will he give an undertaking that all the seats on the Muslim moiety will be filled by Leaguers. The League executive held a two-hour sitting this morning when a reply to Lord Wavell's letter was approved. According to reports Mr. Jinnah has been authorised to inform Lord Wavell that His Excellency's letter was regarded unsatisfactory by the Working Committee which, under these circumstances, was unable to submit a panel of names.

SCENE SHIFTS TO WHITE HALL
Political circles here suggest that success or failure now depends upon Whitehall attitude towards the Simla Conference. The situation may not clear till July 14, when the Simla Conference reassembles.

Berlin To Retain Overall Entity

LONDON, July 9. (Reuter): The Allied Military Government and Soviet authorities have agreed that for administrative purposes Berlin shall retain its overall entity, reports the "Times" special correspondent, from the German capital.

Within the next few days a three-power command is to be set up composed of military commanders of the Allied sectors, which will take decisions on matters affecting the city as a whole.

UNCIO DELEGATES ATTEND RECEPTION GIVEN BY INDIA REPRESENTATIVES

V. K. Wellington Koo, Chinese Ambassador to Great Britain and a member of the Chinese delegation to the Frisco Conference, converses with Faris Al-Khour, Syrian Prime Minister and chairman of his country's delegation. Sir A. Ramaswami Mudaliar (centre), Supply Member of the Governor General's Executive Council and chairman of India's delegation, was host to the delegates from 50 countries at a reception before the conference closed June 26.—U. ### League Can't Make Up Its Mind 'Till Picture Is Complete'

Jinnah Says, We Are In Simla As Advisers To Wavell

SIMLA, July 9. (A. P. I.): Mr. M. A. Jinnah, President of the All India Muslim League, speaking at an afternoon reception arranged in his honour by the President and members of the Simla District Muslim League today, said that the Muslim League would yield nothing which would in any way infringe upon the fundamentals of its policy.

On the Wavell proposals, Mr. Jinnah said: "We are now at present at a stage of confidential talks and negotiations. I believe it would not be conducive to the best results which we all desire that in the midst of these confidential talks and negotiations I should discuss publicly the question. Perhaps you are impatient, but have patience because it is a virtue and in the long run it pays."

"I think I am not disclosing any secrets which I am pledged and to which I strictly adhere when on June 29 I made a statement at a Press conference giving you a picture of some of the issues that we had to tackle. The complete and full picture has not yet emerged. We are in this conference, more or less in the position of advisers to Lord Wavell who has been good enough to 'call us' to help him. But do not forget we are only advisers. When the true picture emerges it cannot be binding upon the All-India Muslim League until it has been ratified by our organisation. Do not therefore have any apprehensions."

ONLY AN HONOURABLE FACT
Mr. Jinnah expressed gratification at the trust placed in him and said: "Nothing on this earth will make me accept any proposal which I think is detrimental to the Muslim interest. Nothing will make me accept any proposal or scheme which is likely to prejudice, prejudice or militate against our goal of Pakistan. After all it has been made clear that this is only a makeshift and stop-gap arrangement. We are not laying down the future constitution. The whole question is, with all the desire to take up responsibility, we cannot enter into an arrangement which is not an honourable one, just to us and reasonable."

Mr. Jinnah maintained that the entire Muslim community behind the Muslim League and said: "Even our worst opponents and enemies today recognise that if there is any organisation in the country which is well-equipped and the solid support of the Muslims, it is the All-India Muslim League. They may abuse us but they know in their heart of hearts that what I predicted eight years ago is correct and that is in this subcontinent there are three powers. One is the best organised and most powerful party, the British, who are actually ruling this country and the other

Nehru Wants India To Stand For Race Equality Says Country's Post-War Role Depends On Her Status

SIMLA, July 9. (U. P. I.): "The part India will play in post-war settlement depends on the status of India in international affairs at the time. An independent India or India on the verge of independence with full control over her foreign and international affairs will obviously play an important part," said Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru in an interview to the All India Radio discussing India's role in post-war settlement.

Continuing, he said, "Both in South-East Asia and Western Asia India will have an important role by virtue of her size, enormous resources, great potential capacity and strategic position. Her general outlook has been one in favour of the independence of the Asiatic countries both in South-East and Western Asia as well as the freedom of all oppressed people anywhere. Further India must stand for racial equality and elimination of the causes that lead to war and conflict. Together with China India has a long record of peace and non-aggression and in future both these countries will throw their weight on the side of world peace."

NO ISOLATED INDEPENDENCE
"India seeks independence both political and economic, but she realises fully that there is no such thing as isolated national independence to-day. In the world of to-day nations have to depend on each other in most spheres of activities. Through India's independence is viewed the context of inter-dependence of nations and rapid development of inter-national order to ensure this inter-dependence as well as national freedom. India is to rapidly industrialise, but I hope this industrialisation will not be based on the exploitation of foreign markets."

Concluding Pandit Nehru said: "If the proposed interim Government comes off it can only be considered as a step towards our object. It can hardly be called a National Government in the real sense of the word. At most it is a door leading to a future National Government as such. If properly constituted it is to be welcomed as a step enabling India to reach the object of independence and at the same time in furthering the policies I have indicated. To some extent it may be able to do both for the national and international field."

'Vote Communist' Passage Cut Out Of Message!

Unwarranted Obliteration By R. A. F. Unit Censor In Aden Revealed

LONDON, July 9. (Reuter): Sergeant Leslie Hart, serving with the RAF at Aden, received a letter from his wife at York asking him to vote for the Communist Party in the election. He replied that if there should be a Communist candidate he should vote for him.

The RAF unit censor deleted the vital words. The "News Chronicle" got to hear of it and cabled Sergeant Hart for the missing words.

SEATS FOR DEFEATED MINISTERS
LONDON, July 9. (U.P.I.): At least three Tory M.P.'s are going to be elected in three weeks only to find themselves having to relinquish their seats within a few weeks. They will be asked by their party to resign in order to give seats to the Cabinet Ministers and important Tory back-benchers who will have been defeated.

In this connection it is reliably learned that the Tories fear that Sir James Grigg, the War Minister Sir Walter Womersley, Minister for Pensions and Sir Oliver Lytton have done badly at the polls and their return to Parliament is problematical.

CHURCHILL SPEAKS NONSENSE SAYS MORRISON

(From Our Correspondent)
LONDON, July 9. Addressing a labour meeting yesterday, Mr. Herbert Morrison said that Mr. Churchill was talking nonsense when he advocated increases in social services and condemned and resented the Labour Party's efforts to improve British economic organisation.

Mr. Morrison added: "If people in backward countries like India and China doubled their standard of living it would be a good thing for the whole world. Our country which has great exporting interests, has everything to gain from a prosperous world, but everything to lose from a

ALLIED BAN ON FRATERNISATION

Move Afoot For Removal In Case Of German Girls

TWENTY-FIRST ARMY GROUP HQ. HERFORD
JULY 9. (Reuter): Preparation are understood to be in progress here to lift the ban on fraternisation between the British occupation troops and the German civilians. Reuter's special correspondent.

Within a month troops will be allowed to fraternise with German girls. The whole matter is being discussed at the highest level and a big decision is likely soon.

A cafe in Herford was packed last night with British troops and German men and women. The British were seated beside German girls giving them cigarettes and buying them glasses of weak German beer. They talked, joked, and shook hands at length when they left. Two military policemen came in instead of arresting the British for a breach of the fraternisation order they sat down and had a drink with the Germans themselves.

The latest British dogs, is to acquire an identification badge of the type worn by displaced persons and put it on a German Fraulein.

Hans Mark of Hanover who spent six years in Buchenwald for opposing the Nazis, told "Reuter": "I think it is time that the Allies, who have liberated us from Nazism realised that the Germans who suffered in concentration camps deserve better treatment than a cold shoulder. Thousands of us have suffered at the hands of the Nazis. We can understand unfriendliness towards the German people who supported Hitler but surely troops should be allowed to shake hands with us who are your friends."

disgraced world. A prosperous world is likely to be a peaceful world since the main reason for war will have been removed."

Rs. 9,005 was stolen from the Bomi Pharmacy and Stores in Farsi Bazar Street, on Saturday.

The owner of the Stores, had as usual opened the shop at 8 a.m. and had gone to the Hero Restaurant next door leaving his son in charge. When he came back from the restaurant the money bag he had left on the floor near the office table was found missing.

Three servants of the Hero Restaurant have been arrested on suspicion as they were frequenters to the Stores and were seen by the owner on the day of the theft moving in a suspicious manner in front of the shop.

The accused were produced before Mr. F. D. Kanga at the Esplanade Police Court and were remanded to custody.

DR. PURDY CASE

Police Inspector And Constable Give Evidence

Inspector Quiller of the C.I.D. and M. S. Gadge, a police constable gave evidence on Monday when the case against Dr. Purdy and three others was resumed before Mr. F. D. Kanga, Presidency Magistrate, Esplanade Police Court.

The constable who was on duty at the junction of Arthur Road and De Lisie Road had on the 22nd April at about 2.30 p.m. seen three persons coming from the direction of the jail and proceeding along De Lisie Road. A few minutes later, jail sepoys came in pursuit and the constable commanded a taxi coming from Byculla and pursued the prisoners along with the sepoys and accused four were arrested.

Inspector Quiller giving his evidence said that he had received a telephone message on the 22nd April from the Arthur Road Jail and hearing that some prisoners tried to escape and were re-arrested, he had gone to the jail and gathered the details from the jailer. He had also taken charge of many articles from the rectangle and the jailer among which were articles of clothing and toilet, a black cap, a red fez and a white khadi cap, two Railway time tables, one Lanki, a khaki belt with bloodstains, a pair of woollen stockings loaded with a bottle and some stones and a roll map of India. He saw the cut telephone wires in the main office and the table in the B-yard which was used for scaling the wall. There were spots of blood in the steps leading to the office and also near the gate. He was told that all the seven accused were injured and that three jail employees also were injured. The witness himself had seen the third accused who was unconscious being carried on a stretcher.

The case was adjourned to Thursday for further hearing.

DEFAMATION SUIT AGAINST EDITOR

Revision Application Fails In High Court

(From Our Correspondent)
BOMBAY, July 9.
The Revision Application, filed by Mr. Nhanesheb Ahmedsaheb, President of the Rajapur Municipality, against the judgment of Mr. T. E. Waterfield, I.C.S. District Judge, Rajapur, in which the Sessions Judge acquitted the Editor and the Publisher of the "Balwant" was summarily dismissed by their lordships Mr. Justice Divatia and Mr. Justice Rajadhyax.

It will be recalled that the weekly newspaper "Balwant" of Rajapur had published a report to the effect that a certain citizen of Rajapur had assaulted Mr. Nhanesheb Ahmedsaheb, President of Rajapur Municipality with a Chappal (Indian Sandal). Mr. Nhanesheb had prosecuted both the Editor and Publisher, and the trying Magistrate Mr. K. A. Walsekar, had convicted the accused to sentences of rigorous imprisonment with fine of 200 and 100 rupees. That decision was reversed in appeal by Mr. T. E. Waterfield. Sessions Judge, who acquitted the accused.

Mr. Nhanesheb had therefore proceeded to the High Court.

Constables Arrested For Stealing Brandy

Two police constables on duty at the Princess Dock are alleged to have stolen a box of Portuguese Brandy from a shed at the Dock. One of them broke open the door of the shed and opened a box containing the brandy. He was passing it out to his accomplice outside, when the watchman came on the scene. The watchman is said to have been manhandled by the accused who afterwards ran away. The watchman pointed out the

INCIDENTS OF C. I. F. CONTRACTS

Important Decision By High Court

(Before the Hon'ble Mr. Justice Chharia)

The Phoenix Mills Ltd. Plaintiffs.

Versus

M. H. Dinshaw and Co., Defendants.

On 29th August 1941 the defendants entered into a C.I.F. contract to supply to the plaintiffs certain dyeing and bleaching machinery for the price of Rs. 10,546. On 15th September 1941, the plaintiffs paid Rs. 3,500 and on 18th February 1942 they paid of the balance of Rs. 7,046 and on the same day a bill of lading in respect of the goods was handed over by the defendants to the plaintiffs. On 1st April 1942, the defendants forwarded to the plaintiffs an Insurance Certificate from their Ship Brokers which showed that the goods had been insured with the Western Assurance Co., Ltd. under a Marine Policy for £705 and a War Risk Policy for £278. The ship in which the goods had been despatched having been sunk by enemy action, the plaintiffs sued for refund of the price of the goods. The defendants, had, by not delivering proper documents, failed to perform their obligations under the C.I.F. contract and that there was also a failure of consideration.

JUDGMENT.

His Lordship observed that under a C.I.F. contract, there was an obligation on the seller to do everything in his power to see that the buyer was in a position to obtain delivery of the goods shipped or to sue on the policy of insurance. His Lordship therefore held that it was not necessary for the defendants to have tendered the original invoice with their own sellers and that they had delivered the proper document when they submitted their own bill to the plaintiffs on 11th February 1942. His Lordship, however, held that the Insurance Certificate was not a policy of insurance for the buyer who, therefore, could not have sued on it. Distinguishing the case of Ramvaco vs. Lucas (1961) 1 B. L. R. 185, His Lordship rejected the argument advanced by counsel for the defendants that the seller was bound to insure only for the value of the goods in England and not for what the buyer had paid under the contract. His Lordship then held that the plaintiff had not waived his right to obtain a proper policy for the full amount of the price, because through waiver under Section 63 of the Contract Act was not necessarily contractual it could only be by an affirmative act and not by a mere omission on the part of the plaintiffs to assert their rights to a proper policy when the Insurance Certificate was delivered to them. His Lordship therefore held that the defendants had failed to deliver one of the three essential documents viz. a policy of insurance and therefore passed a decree in favour of the plaintiffs for Rs. 2,841/14 (being the loss suffered by them by reason of the insurance policy not being for the full amount of the price) with costs.

Mr. M. V. Desai and Mr. N. A. Mody instructed by Messrs. Kanga and Co., appeared for the plaintiffs. Mr. J. C. Bhatt and Mr. A. A. Peerbhoy instructed by Messrs. B. H. Vakeel and Co., appeared for the defendants.

The Bombay String Quartet

The fourteenth concert of the Bombay String Quartet at the C. J. Hall on Monday evening was performed by a changed personnel due to the absence of Mr. Mehli Mehta, who has left for America. With Mr. Homi Kanga, as first violin, Miss Siloo Panthaki as second, Mr. Rusi Mody at the viola and Mr. George Lester at the violoncello, the combination was very satisfactory. Though the possibilities are limited in a quartet, the competent handling of each instrument went far to bring about a good ensemble resulting in a fine chamber music performance.

Mozart's String Quartet in "B" flat major K 458 (The Hunt) exhibited the responsibility of each individual solo instrument to bring out the artistic delicacy, the variety in quality and force of tone so characteristic of Mozart's compositions.

Beethoven's keen sense of design and his exuberant expression and spontaneous flow of energetic thought were well balanced by the strings in his Quartet in "C" Minor Opus 18, No. 4.

Mark Robinson was at the piano-forte in Brahms' Quartet in A major Opus 26, though Brahms takes his interpreter with his austerity of style and the method, the Quartet succeeded in expressing the characteristic music of the composer that rises above the externals of design and form.

The concert was an unqualified success, reflecting credit on the performers and exhibiting the infinite labours they must have put in constant practice.

first accused and the second accused was identified by a broken umbrella which he had at the time of the theft and which was later found in his room. Both were arrested by the Yellowgate Police and were placed before Mr. F. D. Kanga at the Esplanade Police Court on Monday and were ordered to be released on bail.

Stalin-Soong Parleys

'TIMES' SUGGESTS NEED OF CLOSER
CO-ORDINATION OF CHINESE
MILITARY EFFORT

LONDON, July 9 (Reuter): The "Times" today in a leading article referring to the negotiations being carried out in Moscow by the Chinese mission headed by Dr. T. V. Soong, says that it would be natural to suppose that the Chinese Prime Minister will rank high among the objects of his visit the task of explaining to Marshal Stalin the difficulties between the Chiang Kai-shek Government and the Communist administration in Yenan.

The Russian Government's misgivings in regard to the situation in China are inspired, the paper says, by the belief that "these internal divisions, by imperilling the unity of China, are weakening the effectiveness of her participation in the war against Japan and threatening her competence to discharge her responsibilities as member of the Security Council."

The editorial says: "The Russian opinion seems to coincide with that of other nations friendly to China in holding that the principal obstacle to her unity is the continued influence in the Kuomintang of certain ultra-conservative forces. While it is only fair to remember that the Chinese have been their own severest critics, and that during the last six months the progressive element in the party has been gaining strength, the hard fact remains that negotiations between Chungking and Yenan have been allowed to drag on without result. The Communists are unwilling to abandon their separatist regime unless a true Coalition Government based on popular principles is set up in the place of the existing central structure, while Chungking desires to dovetail the Yenan administration into the old fabric. Considerable hopes of accommodation have lately been based on the gradual approach of the Kuomintang Progressives to Yenan Moderates. But it has been reported that the Communists have decided not to take part in this year's meeting of the People's Political Council which on this occasion will have the important task of deciding the procedure for calling the National Assembly in November with the object of adopting a draft democratic constitution and electing the principal officers of the Republic."

This is the more unfortunate as the end of the one party rule seems now in sight.

It is urgently necessary that military action against the Japanese should follow an agreed plan and that the forces of Yenan should be adequately equipped. Now that reorganisation of the Chungking troops is in train, and Sino-American co-ordination has begun to bear fruit, the advances on the Kwangsi, Fukien and Honan fronts, Yenan can no longer assert that Chungking is fighting a "phony war". Of late, indeed, American trained divisions in Southern China have played a more significant part in campaign than the Communists' armies in the north.

But this surely makes the need for closer co-ordination of the Chinese national military effort even more imperative. Suspicions in Yenan of the intentions and influence of the Kuomintang Conservatives are far-reaching, and not without foundation. Yet the Communists have themselves a vital interest in a search for a true understanding between the parties, and this can be effected only by their reaching out to the Kuomintang as a whole.

SINO-RUSSIAN TALKS

Yenan And Sinkiang Issues
Loom Large

NEW YORK, July 8 (U.P.I.): The present conversations taking place in Moscow between the Soviet Premier, Generalissimo Josef Stalin, and the Chinese Premier and Foreign Minister, Mr. T. V. Soong, should result in an appreciable easing of tensions between the Chungking and Moscow governments, Mr. W. H. Donald, former adviser to the Chungking Government, said today.

Russia naturally is in sympathy with the Chinese Communist regime in Yenan, Shensi Province, Mr. Donald said, but that does not mean that an understanding between Chungking and Moscow is impossible. Stalin will look on Chungking-Moscow relations as a part of the whole picture of Russia's post-war position in the Far East, the expert said, and will make his adjustments in foreign policy accordingly. Stalin will not hesitate to request the Chinese Communists to make sacrifices if he deems it necessary.

Mr. Donald said he does not share the view that Emperor Hirohito of Japan was forced into the war against his will by the Japanese military party. "I have always thought the Japanese Emperor should be considered a top war criminal," he said.

Franco's S.O.S. To Churchill

LONDON, July 8 (U.P.I.): The "Reichs" News secret history column reports that encouraged by Mr. Churchill's wild electioneering speeches General Franco wired to the Premier to arrange a meeting abroad in his private yacht when holidaying near Hendaye on the Spanish Frontier.

HOBNOBBING WITH FRANCO'S FRIENDS?

LONDON, July 8 (U.P.I.): Is there some political purpose behind Mr. Churchill's decision to have a holiday in Hendaye on the Franco-Spanish border? Recently, there have been persistent reports that Gen. Franco may take the advantage of this opportunity to pay a visit to Mr. Churchill in order to consolidate the bonds of friendship with the British Prime Minister.

Credence is given to these reports by the uneasiness prevailing in French circles and

Soviets Springs New Surprise

Stalin Insists On Oil Concessions
From Iran

LONDON, July 9 (U.P.I.): Oil, the life blood of modern war, is in the news again. It is reported by the New York correspondent of the "News of the World" that Russia is demanding inclusion in any new convention or agreement signed at the forthcoming Anglo-American Conference in London to negotiate an agreement regarding the Middle East oil fields.

The correspondent writes: "Marshal Stalin is insisting on oil concessions from Iran which may affect the Anglo-Iranian interests and it is certain that oil will be on the agenda by the 'Big Three' Conference when it meets in Berlin."

This dispatch gives particular significance to the reports circulating in the Middle East suggesting moves by Russia and Turkey towards the oil centres. While there is no confirmation of these reports, the implications are being freely discussed in the diplomatic circles here.

London And Warsaw Poles Fall Out

LONDON, July 9 (U.P.I.): A fight is now in progress between the Warsaw and London Poles for the money and property taken out of the country in the early days of the war. The Warsaw Government now recognised by Britain and America has set up a commission to take over all Polish assets outside Poland. They are acting swiftly as the London Poles have been trying to play their hands on the Polish shipping in the high seas.

It is believed that the discredited London Poles are trying to turn over all their country's assets to commercial companies registered in London and America.

Freedom For Philippines

MacArthur Removes Misconceptions

MANILA, July 9 (Reuter): All contentions made in the past against political independence of the Philippines are untenable, declared General MacArthur addressing a joint session of the Philippine Congress today in response to an invitation.

He said: "You convene at a time when you will soon realise the long sought political independence. Prior to the war, the question of national defence offered the most serious obstacle to the realisation of your political independence. Altered world conditions resulting from the war have removed this obstacle. Defence is no longer national, it has become international."

The other two contentions that "you as a race lacked the stature essential to self-government and lacked economic stability to sustain self-government" are also untenable, General MacArthur declared.

He was confident that the American people will extend to the Philippines the full measure of trade. Later on there was scattered realising which wiped out the early improvement and tone was quiet. Tata Steel Defd. declined to Rs. 2220 and steadied at Rs. 2223 while Bombay Dyng shares after declining to Rs. 1917 steadied at Rs. 1920. 3 1/2 per cent Government Paper was quoted at Rs. 102/10.

8 GERMANS KILLED, 36 WOUNDED

SALIMA UTAH, July 8 (Reuter): The United States Army Department announces that 8 German prisoners of war were killed and 36 others wounded, 6 seriously, at the French Prisoner of War Camp, when the Tower Guard apparently went "berserk" and fired a full belt of 30 calibre machine-gun bullets into tents in which prisoners were sleeping.

among Spanish Republicans. They point out that Hendaye has long been a notorious gathering place for Fascist agents of French, Spanish, and other nationalities and it is certain that during his stay there Mr. Churchill will be subjected to the influence of Gen. Franco's friends and may even have informal beach-side meetings with the Spanish Dictator himself. In this connection it is significant that Moscow, which has never excluded itself regarding the nature of the Franco regime has chosen this moment to make almost outspoken attack on the Dictatorship in Spain. French and Spanish Republican observers interpret that Pravda's call to put an end to Franco on the eve of the "Big Three" meeting as an indication that Marshal Stalin is certain to raise the Spanish question in the Berlin Conference and demand strong action against Franco.

Tea Time— In the Himalayas

Hundreds of miles of bridge-roads link the valleys and plateaus in India's Great North Wall. It is only through constant traffic by pack-mules that these settlements are able to live and to send their valuable produce, such as fruit and fine wool to the Plains.

On these roads, the traveller's throat is parched in the summer, but he shivers in the snows of winter. Hot tea, which is freely drunk in these mountains, helps to make the way easier and cheers him at journey's end.

The people of the Hills take their tea ready mixed with milk and sugar. The traditional vessel in the Eastern Himalayas is a long-stemmed cup of wood, lined with silver, but brass or China bowls are often used elsewhere.

Everywhere in the mountains Brooke Bond fresh teas are most popular—just as they are all over the Plains of India.

Two years ago Black Markets were at their worst—prices soared and even prosperous people found many necessities of life to be priced beyond their incomes. Prices are falling.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED!

The first recorded sun-dial is that of Ahaz, about 800 B.C. but long before, when the Great Sphinx was built in Egypt, men ordered their lives by the coming and going of the sun and measured time by some crude form of sun-dial.

Be that as it may, the sun-dial is the earliest known instrument for the measurement of time. Down the centuries ever since, one timekeeping apparatus has replaced another, until to-day when the accumulated knowledge and skill of the ages are exemplified to perfection in "WEST END" watches—precise in performance, modern in design, faultless in workmanship.

Due to irregular arrivals, it may not be possible to supply all the patterns advertised, but every effort will be made to execute orders as far as our stocks permit us to do so. According to the latest Paper Control Order, we regret that no Catalogues can be sent.
